Policy Statement:

The GPWDB affirms its commitment to the policy of assuring nondiscrimination and equal employment opportunity for all in the conduct of programs funded under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act of 2014 (Public Law 113-128). Any person, who believes he or she has been subject to discrimination based on race, sex, national origin, color, religion, political affiliation, physical disability, age (except where bona fide occupational qualifications concerning physical requirements are necessary for proper and efficient functioning on the job or in the training activity being proposed) nor any other non-merit factor and for the beneficiaries only, citizenship, or participation in WIOA, has the right to file a complaint within 180 days of the alleged discrimination. This policy applies to all phases of employment including job structuring and upward mobility, recruitment, selection, training, compensation, benefits, layoffs, transfer administration relative to the GPWDB's staff, the staffs of Program Operators, recipients and to participants in WIOA program activities.

Section 1559.

Definitions:

- A. Equal Opportunity - is an employer's posture that all personnel activities will be conducted in a manner, which will assure equal opportunity for all. Such activities will be based on individual merit and fitness of applicants and employees related to the specific jobs and without regard to non-merit factors such as race, sex, age, national origin, color, religion, handicapped disability, political affiliation or belief.

- B. Affirmative Action - is a planned, aggressive, coherent management program to provide for equal employment opportunity. The Affirmative Action Plan (AAP) is the written document through which management assures equal opportunity. - C. Recipient - means any entity to which Federal financial assistance under any title of WIOA is extended, either directly or through the Governor or through another recipient (including any successor, assignee, or transferee or a recipient), but excluding the ultimate beneficiaries of the WIOA-funded program or activity and the Governor. Grievance Procedures:

Pursuant to Section 188 of the WIOA Regulations (Public Law 113-128), all WIOA program participants have a right to file a grievance. Grounds for a grievance involve individual discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age disability, and political affiliation or belief of discrimination during employment in the administration of, or in connection with, any WIOA-funded program or activity.

If a participant thinks that he/she has been subjected to discrimination under a WIOA-funded program or activity, a complaint can be filed within 180 days from the date of the alleged violation with the Program Operators' Equal Opportunity (EO) officer, or the participant may file complaint directly with the Director, Civil Rights Center (CRC). A complaint may be filed by the individual or on the behalf of the individual by an authorized representative. It is recommended that the complaint be filed on GPWDB's Complaint Form.

Program Operators will make every effort to resolve complaints using their own informal mediation procedures at their level. If a resolution cannot be achieved, the complainant has the option of contacting the Greater Peninsula Workforce Development Board’s EO officer or going to the Director, Civil Rights Center in Washington, D. C.

Procedure If a participant believes that he/she has a complaint regarding a violation of his/her civil rights, he/she can take the following steps:

- Step 1: Go to the LWDA's EO Officer within 180 days of the alleged violation and bring the problem to that organization's attention. The LWIDA has 90 days to respond.
- Step 2: If the LWDA does not respond within 90 days, the participant can immediately file the complaint directly with the CRC.
- Step 3: If the LWDA responds within the 90 day limit and the participant is not satisfied with the resolution of the complaint, he/she can file directly with the Director of Civil Rights Center. This latter filing to the CRC must be completed within 30 days of the date you receive notice of the Subcontractor's proposed resolution.
- Step 4: If the participant chooses, he/she may by-pass the LWDA and go directly to the CRC. The filing must be done within 180 days from the date of the alleged violation. Address of the CRC is shown on next page.

General:

- A. All LWDA internal time limits for grievances will be strictly adhered to unless it is not possible due to schedule limitations. The LWDA’s Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer will approve/disapprove any requests for extension based on the facts of the case. The Director of the Civil Rights Center is the only person who can grant extensions on time limits regarding discrimination complaints.

- B. A copy of the grievance procedure and civil rights form will be given to each participant enrolled in WIOA activities for their review and signature. The original copy of this form will be placed in their participant folder.
- C. The LWDA's EO Officer is Ms. Shannon Trochuck, 757-826-3327. If you have any questions, please discuss them with your Career Planner first and Ms. Trochuck later if the participant needs additional information. For hearing impaired, the Virginia Telecommunications Relay Service is a service that relays a conversation between a person with a speech or hearing disability using a TTY (Text Telephone) and a hearing person using a regular telephone. To reach Virginia Relay simply dial 711. Additionally, Peninsula Worklink has a Text Telephone located in its telephone bank and the number to this telephone is 757-766-4928.
- D. Complaints not resolved at the Program Operator's level will be referred directly to this office for resolution. If a suitable solution is not attained at this level, the next step is to forward the complaint directly to the Director, Civil Rights Center, Washington, D.C., as per instruction contained in paragraph 5 above. Ms. Trochuck is available as the technical advisor for both the Program Operator and the complainant. WIOA participants, PCFWD staff and Program Operators should feel free to contact Ms. Trochuck for advice should a need arise.
- E. To communicate the discrimination complaint policy, "Equal Opportunity Is The Law" posters in English and Spanish shall be placed in prominent locations which are accessible to applicants, eligible applicants, participants, terminees, applicants for employment and employees, applicants for funding and other interested parties. The poster contains a nondiscrimination and equal opportunity statement, as well as information about filing a complaint.
- F. The USDOL required EO Tag Line, "Equal Opportunity Employer/Program - Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities" must be included on Websites, recruitment brochures, and other materials communicated in written or electronic format. Also, a TDD number must be indicated when a telephone number is indicated. The tag line does not have to be included on business cards, envelopes, and letterhead. However, if the letterhead indicates a telephone number, a TDD number must be indicated. Refer back to 6. C of this procedure for TDD and TTY telephone numbers.

G. The U.S. Department of Justice has issued a Language Identification Card (attachment 1) to assist program staff in identifying what particular language a customer is speaking. The card includes 38 languages. PCFWD recommends that you distribute the Card to all staff members.

This FGM will be distributed to all responsible personnel within the Local Workforce Development Area #14, including all staff and Program Operators. Copies of the Agency’s nondiscrimination Policy and Complaint policy will be posted in a prominent place on each organization’s bulletin board. In addition Program Operators will include information contained in this FGM in their WIOA orientation of participants during the enrollment process.

Purpose:

It is the policy of the Greater Peninsula Workforce Development Board (GPWDB) to provide equal employment opportunities without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation, genetic information or any other protected characteristic under applicable law. This policy relates to all phases of employment, including, but not limited to, recruiting, employment, placement, promotion, transfer, demotion, reduction of workforce and termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, selection for training, the use of all facilities, and participation in all company-sponsored employee activities. Provisions in applicable laws providing for bona fide occupational qualifications, business necessity or age limitations will be adhered to by the company where appropriate.

Employees and applicants shall not be subjected to harassment, intimidation or any type of retaliation because they have (1) filed a complaint; (2) assisted or participated in an investigation, compliance review, hearing or any other activity related to the administration of any federal, state or local law requiring equal employment opportunity; (3) opposed any act or practice made unlawful by any federal, state or local law requiring equal opportunity; or (4) exercised any other legal right protected by federal, state or local law requiring equal opportunity.

The above-mentioned policies shall be periodically brought to the attention of Program Managers and Program Operators and shall be appropriately administered. It is the responsibility of each Program Manager and Program Operator of the GPWDB to ensure affirmative implementation of these policies to avoid any discrimination in employment. All employees are expected to recognize these policies and cooperate with their implementation. Violation of these policies is a disciplinary offense.

The Affirmative Action Officer (Program Support Manager) has been assigned to direct the establishment and monitor the implementation of personnel procedures to guide our affirmative action program throughout LWDA #14. A notice explaining the policy will remain posted.
